

Networkers,

Welcome to your lockdown boredom cure. It is a weird time for all of us so why not channel your energy into something fun, exciting and productive! Following government advice, complete a minimum of 20 challenges to gain the award. Good Luck!

Community Impact

- Clap for Key Workers in your scout uniform (Thursdays 8pm)
- Take part in 'Scottish Network gives Covid-19 the Boot!'
- Complete 10 hours of Covid 19 community work/ volunteering
- Wash 5 cars that aren't your own
- Host an online quiz for friends/families
- Create a window display in support of Key Workers

Outdoor and Adventure

- Cycle 100 miles
- Walk 50 miles
- Sleep out under the stars
- Sleep somewhere unusual
- Plan your next outdoor adventure for when lockdown is over
- Re-waterproof some old outdoor kit
- Build a den and sleep in it
- Cook breakfast, lunch and dinner on a camping stove
- Sleep a minimum of 4 nights in places that aren't your bed

International

- Cook cuisines from 6 different countries
- Make contact with 3 international scouting friends
- Learn the foundations of a new language
- Upcycle some scout memorabilia

Skills for life

- Knit something useful
- Bake a loaf of bread from scratch
- Complete a gardening project for yourself or a friend/family member
- Design and create a prototype for a new board game
- Complete an online course relevant to you
- Read 10 new books
- Write a poem or song with a scouting theme
- Complete the Scouts Safety Training online
- Grow a Herb, Fruit or vegetable
- Sketch your favourite Munro Scene
- Perform and record a song, dance or drama piece.
- Document your award evidence in a creative way (video, journal etc)*

Submit your entries to scoutnetwork@scouts.scot before August 30th 2020

* Compulsory

network